

You're Invited!
East Vincent Township's
175th Anniversary
May 5, 2007

10:00 -- The day will start at 10:00 Saturday morning with a parade on Ridge Road (Route 23) between Vincent Elementary and the Township building. Get yourself a good spot – there will be a lot to see!

11:00 – Ceremony in the Park – Truly special – come on down – you don't want to miss it.

12:00 – Lunch! We will pass out hot dogs, hamburgers, water and soft drinks as long as they last. French fries, funnel cake and Bruster's Ice Cream will be available to purchase. Our grills will be available for cooking so if you want to bring your own food, that's OK too.

1:00 – 5:00 or as noted The Park will burst with activities: Hayrides, sack races, volleyball, horseshoes and more.

OR

- Visit the One Room School House on Hickory Grove Road. Ms. Oncay will be on hand.
- Go to the Parker Tavern on Old Schuylkill Road – George Washington did. Dr. Price will make it all seem like yesterday.
- See and learn about Black Angus Cattle at the Schwartz Farm on Pugtown Road between Bethel & Brownbacks Church Road.
THIS VENUE IS OPEN FROM 2 to 5 PM ONLY
- Go to the Seven Stars Farm on Seven Stars Road and see the dairy cows. You can learn a lot about agriculture too. THIS VENUE IS OPEN FROM 3 to 5 PM ONLY
- Visit East Vincent and St. Vincent Historic Churches. Nice folks there will tell you all the stories.
- Go across the street to pay your respects at the Revolutionary War Soldier Cemetery. We wouldn't be here today if it weren't for those young men. Find out which of the churches became a temporary hospital where the men died.

Consult the map on the other side so you know where you are going and how to get back because:

The Concert starts at 5!!

All live performances will include:

Little Stars from Vincent Elementary School

The Silver Strings

From the Mainline -- The Bulldogs!

Bring your lawn chairs, a blanket or use the chairs we provide. Sit back, relax and when the music ends you are going to have a real blast!

After the Parade, extra parking will be available at The Vincent Elementary School and at Grace Assembly of God on the corner of Bridge Street and Ridge Road.

Reminders:

We want to remember to respect the property of others and don't litter.

We don't want to touch or feed any animals without permission from their owner.

We need to keep in mind that some visiting hours are limited.
